

Important information regarding Smart Invest

In line with our dedication to innovation and improved services, we are planning to migrate in a new platform and as a consequence of this transition, we want to inform you that the Smart Invest Trading Platform will cease to be operational starting from 28.06.2024. With this notice, which is in compliance with the terms of the Agreement for Online Investment Services for the Smart Invest Trading Platform, referring to Article 16 of the contract, you have sufficient time to manage your exposures and make decisions in accordance with the deadlines, as after the date 28.06.2024, you will no longer have access to the platform. The concluding phase involves an unwinding period starting three months before the effective date. During this period, no new exposures can be initiated. Only actions related to closing positions or canceling open orders, known as a "reduce-only" configuration, will be allowed. You will also receive a phone call from the bank representatives for further details.
